

B.A. Program Outcomes

1. B.A. program gives an opportunity to study various combinations of subjects. So it is quite popular among those interested in civil services.
2. Students have to choose foundation courses, which give basic knowledge of society, economics & politics.
3. Students acquire knowledge in the field of social sciences, literature and humanities which make them sensitive and sensible enough.
4. Students choosing combination of three subjects develop social, political, historic, economic and literary consciousness and will be better able to appreciate different civilizations and culture. They will be up to date with contemporary developments and develop a sociological sensibility to critically understand the social phenomena that affects their lives. Students also learn two languages along with three major subjects, at the end of program they usually will have advanced reading, writing, speaking, interpretive and composition skill in both languages. The subject in arts faculty is carrying out the important role in competitive exam.
5. Humanity education is designed in such a way that it lays particular emphasis on human values.
6. Students on completion of the undergraduate degree will be better able to appreciate literary and cultural diversity. It equips them to think critically about the issue of contemporary relevance and hold an informed opinion on them.
7. On graduating, the students will be eligible for employment in tourism, media, hospitality and other industries. Students also become employable in non-governmental organizations. Their skills comprehension of general social phenomena around them place them in an ideal situation for such jobs. They will also be able to appear for competitive examination conducted for public sector jobs. The general humanities education equips them to clear competitive exams.