

Department of Political Science Outcomes

To understand the concept of political science and to have a knowledge about the significance of Political Science.

B.A. I Semester - Political Theory

Analyzing what is politics and explaining the approaches to the study of political science – Normative, Behavioral, post behavioral, Feminist Assessing the theories of state (origin, nature, functions) : Contract, Idealist, Liberal and Neo Liberal theories.

Explaining the concept of state sovereignty, theory of class perspective, theory of elite

Understanding basic concept of liberty, equality, law, justice, rights.

B.A. II Semester - Western Political Thinkers

Explaining the Plato's Ideal State theory. Concept of family Communism, wealth communism, view's on philosopher king.

Describing the Aristotle theory of State : Aristotle classification of government, Aristotle's view's on citizenship, slavery, revolution.

Discussing the Marx's theory of state with special reference of relative autonomy of the state. Marxian theory of revolution, Marxist approach of politics.

Explaining the J.S. Mill's concept on liberty, theory of democracy. Views on freedom of thoughts & action.

B. A. III Semester - Indian Government & Politics

The objective of this course is to familiarize students with the main element of the Constitution of India.

Students understanding their fundamental rights & too aware about their rights.

They discussed their views on Indian legislature system, functioning & significance.

Students implemented their political duty properly.

Explaining directive principals of Indian Government: Economic, Social, Political & International

Explaining the role of Indian Prime Minister of Indian government.

To Discuss Indian Executive functioning methods & process.

Describing the structure of Indian Supreme Court, its functions and power.

To imbibe the constitutional values on the students.

To Explain the right to information act: structure, process, functions & importance

To identify how electoral rules & procedure in India effect election outcomes.

B.A. IV Semester - State Government & Politics

To know the relation between Union Government & State Government.

To describe the role of state governor in state.

To discuss the state legislature structure, function & significance.

To learn the high court functions, structure, power

To appreciate the role chief minister in state government.

B.A. V Semester – Comparative Government & politics

To understand the concept of comparative government & politics.

To understand the comparative analysis of various government or political system of the countries like USA and UK.

It helps them to critically analysis about the advantages and disadvantages of that political system with Indian political system.

B. A. VI Semester – International Relation

It inculcates knowledge of various concept of International Relation for example Collective security, Balance of Power etc.

It also helps to understand various process of International Relation.

It studies about UNO which is the only one International Organization functioning for the maintenance of International peace & Security.

It enable the students to understand about the various issues of International Relation like global terrorism between India and different neighboring countries. Like Pakistan, China and Bangladesh.

It also gives knowledge about various other aspects like new international / Economic order and studies about global organizations like WTO.

It helps the students to analyze all those issues critically and to understand significance of world peace.

Program Specific Outcome

Political Science organize guest lecture by scholar in the field of Political Science and encourages the students to think critically and gives information about politics and various aspects of public life.

Political Science Department enable the students to participate in various program conduct by humanities department as well as forum of college and also avail the student to participate in various activities of the college and outside.